

TASK 1: Fill in the table by first marking in column 1 each reason that applies to you. In column 2 of the marked rows select the most important reasons for you and rank them from 1 to 10, starting with the most important.

I want to become an entrepreneur because	1	2
I want to be my own boss
I want to make my own decisions
I want to make more money
I want to have work
I want to show others that I am worth something
I see other people working for themselves and I think I can do it too
I want to have more control over my life
I want to be taken seriously
I am tired of my current job
I am tired of being unemployed
I want to have the freedom to do whatever and whenever I want
I want to receive a fair reward for my efforts
I want to create something for my family
I want to test my idea
I want to test myself to see if I can handle it
I want to use my skills
I want to improve my competencies
I want to be independent
I want to succeed in something
I want to have good self-esteem
I want people to be proud of me
I want to know that I have succeeded on my own
I want the freedom to organize my time
I feel good when a customer orders from me
I want to help people

TASK 2: Choose the five most important reasons for you and write down the positive and negative sides you see about them. For example, if you have marked the earning of more money, the positive side is that you can buy things that you could not afford before, and the negative - that you will not have time to spend them.

Reason	Advantage	Disadvantage
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.		